

Pusher

The pusher is an additional element working with the locker electric locks. Enables the installation of handleless cabinets by "ejecting" the door of the cabinet when the lock is opened.